

What to Do in Spokane while you are attending the AAUW Convention

Make it a Mini Vacation!

Historic Davenport Hotel Tour: Free guided walking tour of the hotel, Friday 3 pm. Meet in the lobby near the fountain and join us to learn about the history of the hotel and see some of the beautiful rooms. This is offered just for our convention-goers. All convention activities are located at the Historic Davenport Hotel.

Join Author and Naturalist Jack Nisbit for a walking tour of Spokane: Friday 3 - 5 pm. This is a highly recommended tour, with a guide who has authored several books about Eastern Washington from the naturalist's perspective. He provides a fascinating tour approx. two hours (so make sure you dress comfortably). Sign up on our convention registration page. The cost range is $25 to $40, depending on how many people sign up, so the more the merrier.

Enjoy a Self-guided tour of Spokane after you check in. Maps and information will be available at registration. To find just the right wine-tasting rooms and restaurant for your Saturday evening, research at www.visitspokane.com. Reservations are suggested at some restaurants.

Waterfront Park has undergone extensive improvements, many of which will open in April. Enjoy a sculpture display throughout the park. The Riverfront Park's Looff Carrousel which is more than 100 years old, is one of America's most beautiful and well-preserved, with hand-carved wooden carousel figures. The new, expanded building for the carrousel houses concessions and a gift shop, and incorporates a climate-controlled space to protect the longevity of the wood carvings. Don't miss this!
