INTRODUCTIONS, DISCUSSION
QUESTIONS, RULES FOR PARTICIPATION

- Introductions: Please tell us your name, branch, current position, how long a member
- Discussion questions: Does your branch participate in Lobby Day, keep members informed? Would your branch be interested in doing a public policy café? Does your branch work with other organizations?
- What can AAUW-WA do to enable your success in public policy?
- Norms: Please keep your microphone muted except when talking

WHAT BRANCHES CAN DO

- Appoint a public policy chair; participate in state public policy committee
- Hold a public policy cafe
- Provide feedback to me at advocacy@aauw-wa.org
- Inform branch members on public policy issues, use of state legislature website; encourage participation in virtual Lobby Day
- Actively support R-90 with statewide letters to the editor campaign—see AAUW-WA website
